Four U.S. Athletes Selected To Compete At Inaugural ANOC World Beach Games

Event will be held Oct. 13-14 in Doha, Qatar

POLK CITY, Fla. – USA Water Ski & Wake Sports is pleased to announce the four athletes that will represent the United States at the inaugural ANOC World Beach Games, Oct. 13-14, in Doha, Qatar. Organized by the Association of National Olympic Committees, the ANOC World Beach Games will be held in conjunction with the ANOC General Assembly. Approximately 1,360 athletes representing the five Olympic continents will compete in 17 different sports, including water ski jumping and wakeboarding.

U.S. water ski and wakeboard athletes selected to compete in the event were: Scot Ellis (Auburndale, Fla.), men's jumping; Brittany Greenwood (Little Rock, Ark.), women's jumping; Jamie Lopina (Orlando, Fla.), women’s wakeboarding; and Guenther Oka (Cincinnati, Ohio), men’s wakeboarding. The athletes were selected based upon availability and a pre-determined selection criteria approved by the United States Olympic & Paralympic Committee.

The IWWF has previously organized IWWF Word Cup stops and also the 2007 IWWF Wakeboard World Championships in Doha at the Diplomatic Club’s Channel. The Organizers have confirmed that the Ritz Carlton Channel will be the venue this time.

USA Water Ski & Wake Sports is affiliated with the International Waterski & Wakeboard Federation (world governing body) and is recognized by the United States Olympic & Paralympic Committee and Pan-American Sports Organization as the national governing body of organized water skiing and wakeboarding in the United States.
