To maintain a USA Water Ski Trained Boat Driver's rating, the individual must participate as a driver in at least one USA Water Ski-sanctioned Class "F" or Class "N" tournament per calendar year and attend a USA Water Ski-sanctioned Trained Drivers' clinic every four years. To receive credit for the tournament, your name and membership number must be included on the "Tournament Officials' Record". You should also complete the Personal Tournament Record below and have it signed by the Chief Official of the tournament. This record will serve as an important backup to USA Water Ski's data on your work in case of a discrepancy.

Trained Driver's Personal Tournament Record

Sanction Number	Tournament Date (m/d/y)	Tournament Class	Tournament Name	Chief Official's Signature

A Trained Driver may also maintain his/her rating by performing ten (10) hours of driving practical experience at a camp, ski school, or USA Water Ski-sanctioned club exhibition/practice per calendar year and attending a USA Water Ski-sanctioned Trained Drivers' clinic every four years. List this experience below and return to USA Water Ski Headquarters' Officials Programs Specialist with your annual "Active" USA Water Ski membership renewal.
